

C. Pet in cabin/Checked baggage

(would like to apply an import permit on arrival)

-  1. Passengers with short transit times are not recommended.
- 2. Processing time varies based on number of pets arriving at the same time.

Please prepare the following documents below for inspection:

1. Original Official Health Certificate which stating the health requirement (Please find attached)
 - The health certificate must have endorsement and stamped from the government.
 - The health certificate must be legible, accurate and complete.
2. Original pet passport or vaccination record (must be in English) which includes
 - a. Pet's details (breed, sex, DOB, color, and microchip no.)
 - b. Veterinarian's details who administrates vaccines (full name, license number, and signature)
 - c. Dog: Rabies, Canine Distemper, Canine Hepatitis, Canine Parvovirus, and Leptospirosis vaccines
 - d. Cat: Rabies and Feline Panleukopenia vaccines
3. An application R1/1 form (Click here to download)

Remarks:

* In case of primary or discontinuity vaccination, animal must wait for 21 days since vaccination before departure. However, animal has valid booster vaccination, a waiting period is not required and the previous vaccination records should be attached.

 In case of primary Rabies vaccine: animal was at least 12 weeks old at the time of administration.

In case of dogs that did not have a valid Leptospirosis vaccine: dogs must have a negative result for the Leptospirosis test within 30 days prior to departure

Upon arrival, our staff will check the documents, and the microchip no. on the document must conform with the animal bears. If the documents are complete, the animal will be released on arrival date and a processing fee of 500 baht/pet and 10 baht/shipment will be charged and a receipt provided.

Please ensure that the imported animals have all documents in order. If the animals do not meet the import requirements upon arrival or any document is not in order, the violator shall be fined or the animal shall be returned to the country of export, at the owner's expense.